Newly elected president Yair Sahar completes make up of IDE board

Antwerp, Belgium, July 19, 2011 – With the elections at the Israel Diamond Exchange held earlier this month, newly elected IDE president Yair Sahar appointed no less than five vice presidents and at the same time delegated the president's responsibilities.

Sahar appointed Rafael (Rafi) Yerushalmi as acting president in his absence. Yerushalmi will also head the IDE's Judicial Committee.

Yehuda Sayag was made Deputy President and will serve as the Chairman of the IDE's Daily Affairs and Management Committee.

Yoram Harel Haimoff was appointed vice president and will head the Trading Hall Management Committee.

Two additional vice presidents, Shalom Papir and Ben Zion Saso were appointed and chosen to head the Security and the Members' Committees, respectively.

Other members of the new IDE board include: Moti Fluk, Ishai Topel, Shlomo Shimshovitz; Tomer Smetana, Amotz Raz, Hagai HaLevi, Yossi Ben Zion, Eli Shiri, Ya'akov Harun Shelli, Yizhak Mandler, Ya'akov Katan, Ilan Samuel, Yizhak Berman and Boaz Moldavski.
